YESTERDAY, TODAY, AND TOMORROW

The grade school on the left and the high school on the right comprised the educational site for Mayville children for many years.

This field is the present day site of the Mayville High School built in 1965. That overgrown lane to the left of the picture is presently Henninger street.

Contrast the flag bearers of a bygone year with their modern counterpart-the Drill Squad of Mayville High School.

HOMECOMING 75

King Tom Frank and Queen Cheryl Schuch with members of the Court Tom Schandorbeck, Cindy Meyer, Dan Wolter, Debbie Lohr, Bob Kamm, Carol Storck, Dan Vollmer, Cindy Schelpfleter, Dale Goss, Deane Beck, Johan Mestach, and Brenda Steinhach.

1975 was the third annual Girls' Powderpuff game. The girls spent a lot of time and put great effort into their practices. In the end, it paid off for the winners. The losers had to chalk it up to experience.

As expected, the sophomores crushed the freshmen, 32-0. However, the juniors bruised the seniors in a 14-6 upset.

HOMECOMING WEEK

Traditional customs and festivities highlighted Homecoming Week. Monday was crisp and clear and that evening the girls played the recently established Powder puff game. Tuesday students wore clothing and apparatus portraying their favorite sports. Wednesday was Fozzie day and Thursday was Barker Day. Thursday night a large crowd gathered for the annual pep rally and bonfire. All who attended displayed great school spirit. Friday was red and white day and classes were dismissed early for the pep skit and parade.

Friday night the Cardinals lost to the Conference co-champion Grafton Black Hawks-21-0. Saturday evening's dance capped the week.

STAIRWAY TO HEAVEN

On April 26, a beautiful star filled gymnasium set the scene for the 1975 Junior Prom theme, "Stairway to Heaven."

The class elected Tom Frank as king and he chose Cindy Schellpfeffer as his queen. Other members of the court were Dale Goss and Debbie Beck, Tim Welak and Cathy Bosch, Dan Wolter and Darlene Krueger, Mark Youngbeck and Crystal Muche, and Tom Schnaderbeck and Karen Brummond.

All who attended will long remember an enjoyable evening of dancing to the music of the Ben Reehl quartet.

Many of the couples also enjoyed the post-prom activities sponsored by the Junior Chamber of Commerce. The Mayville Golf Club prepared a buffet supper and "Manchester" provided music until 4:00 A. M.

The 1975 Prom was the best attended and most successful in recent years due to the enthusiastic interest and efforts of the junior class in promoting and staging this event.
